NEWS OF THE ROAD.

Kansas City's demand for a readjustment of rates in Oklahoma and Indian territory has been recognized by the freight officials of the Rock Island railway, and on January 1 a new rate sheet will go into effect on that road which will give Kansas City jobbers much better rates to Oklahoma points than at present maintained. A particular feature of the Rock Island's readjustment is the fact that the action of that line will undoubtedly force the Santa Fe and Choctaw roads to make similar concessions.

The new adjustment affects stations on the main line of the Rock Island south of El Reno and on the Mangum branch. In every instance the amount of reduction in cents per hundred pounds increases Kansas City's differential over St. Louis just that much and the greatest percentage of reductions are on the first, second, third and fourth class shipments, the classes covering the bulk of the goods sent out of Kansas City.

Only two stations—Union City, Ok., and Minco, I. T., show advances on the classes mentioned in the readjustment. The remaining stations affected are given rates showing the following reductions from rates now in effect:

Chickasha, I. T.—Second class, 3 cents; third class, 8 cents; fourth class, 6 cents.

Cottonwood Grove, I. T.—First class, 6 cents; second class, 7 cents; third class, 13 cents; fourth class, 14 cents.

Anadarko, Ok.—First class, 5 cents; second class, 6 cents; third class, 12 cents; fourth class, 16 cents.

Fort Cobb, Ok.—First class, 8 cents; second class, 9 cents; third class, 14 cents; fourth class, 17 cents.

Lathram, Ok.—First class, 9 cents; second class, 9 cents; third class, 15 cents; fourth class, 17 cents.

Mountain View, Ok.—First class, 10 cents; second class, 9 cents; third class, 15 cents; fourth class, 17 cents.

Kiowa, Ok.—First class, 15 cents; second class, 12 cents; third class, 14 cents; fourth class, 16 cents.

Grant, Ok.—First class, 20 cents; second class, 16 cents; third class, 14 cents; fourth class, 12 cents.

Mangum, Ok.—First class, 20 cents; second class, 16 cents; third class, 14 cents; fourth class, 12 cents.

Ninnekah, I. T.—Second class, 4 cents; third class, 8 cents; fourth class, 4 cents.

Rush Springs, I.—Second class, 5 cents; third class, 9 cents; fourth class, 5 cents.

Marlow, I. T.—Second class, 3 cents; third class, 6 cents; fourth class, 3 cents.

Duncan, I. T.—Second class, 1 cent; third class, 3 cents; fourth class, 1 cent.

The Express received this morning a little bell with card compliments of Bryan Snider Supt of Visco Line. It was sent to the Express as the Bell Sheep of the town (or the leader) and the old man wears it as the bell weather of the flock.
